New Jersey
Sanitary Supply Association

Dedicated to Cleaning and Maintenance Solutions

The NJSSA is a not-for-profit trade association dedicated to the advancement and professionalism of its members in the janitorial and sanitary supply industry. As a member of the NJSSA, you will be joining one of the most active state associations in the industry and will receive benefits indispensable to the on-going success of your business.

NJSSA members include industry distributors, manufacturers, manufacturer representatives, wholesalers, and cleaning associates.

VISION STATEMENT

NJSSA will be the primary voice and source for information, education, and networking for businesses within the cleaning and maintenance industry in and around the New Jersey area. We will provide the best resources to benefit the industry.

MISSION STATEMENT

NJSSA provides venues that enable members and associates to participate in commerce, networking, educational seminars, charitable, and social activities. We improve the industry by supporting best practices, and promoting the industry as professional and environmentally sound. We keep our members apprised of political, environmental, technological, or other challenges that affect them in and around the New Jersey area.

NJSSA MEMBER BENEFITS

Supply Line Trade Show

The industry's largest and most cost-effective trade marketplace in the Northeast. Members attend at no charge. Exhibiting members reach a qualified base of distributors and cleaning professionals.

Industry Education

Seminars are provided on a variety of industry topics. This is a great way to improve your business or learn new or different technologies and techniques in the cleaning industry. Members receive discounted rates.

Operation Clean Sweep

This public service program is designed to clean and provide supplies and training to non-profit organizations which otherwise could not afford these services.

Web Site with Online Member Directory

Visiting our professionally designed and high-trafficked web site www.NJSSA.net allows instant access to the latest association information and upcoming events. Membership includes a free listing on the web site including a description of services.

Political/Legislative Monitoring

NJSSA functions in a watchdog role keeping its members aware of government actions that may affect them and represents its members' interest in dealing with government trade and consumer groups.

Education Foundation

NJSSA member company employees and their families are eligible for two $3,000 scholarships presented annually. In addition, many contributions are made to needy local and national programs.

Liaison with Industry Groups

NJSSA maintains active contact with trade and other organizations that affect your business. Specific discounts may be available to member companies.

Networking Events

The NJSSA Golf Outing brings members and guests together prior to the Supply Line trade show. The NJSSA President's Reception and Membership Meeting recognizes industry leaders with the "Bob Stader Leadership Award."

Monthly Membership Email Newsletter and Supply Line Newsletter

Brings members up-to-date on association and industry activities delivered directly to their email inbox. These informative newsletters put essential information at members' fingertips for easy access to the latest industry information. Both are provided to members at no cost.

Member Discount Programs

Office Depot saves you time and money on every day office supplies. NJSSA members also receive a discount on copies.
